

A collaborative event between the Institute of Psychoanalysis and 10 Windsor Walk

The 10 Windsor Walk
INTERNATIONAL THERAPEUTIC PLAYGROUP CONFERENCE

Saturday 18th May 2024, 9.00am - 5.00pm BST

Institute of Psychoanalysis

10 Windsor Walk

Psychoanalysis.org.uk/events

This conference will focus on psychoanalytically informed playgroups for babies, toddlers and their parents. Held in collaboration with the Institute of Psychoanalysis and the Austrian Cultural Forum.

Presentations include:

Parent Toddler Group experiences and the change of dyadic-aggressive family relations between a young boy and his mother by Ruth Weissensteiner, Sabine Frellinger, Judith Thaller, Alexa Kyra Weber, Christin Reisenhofer, Margit Datler, Wilfried Datler.

Therapeutic parent, baby and toddler playgroup for refugees and asylum seekers: bringing psychoanalysis to the community by the 10 Windsor Walk Therapeutic Playgroup team: Lisa Rose Akanuma, Inge Martine-Pretorius and Teresa Sarmiento.

The Casa dei Piccoli in Ravenna, Italy by Nedda Papi.

The challenges of establishing and running a mother and toddler group in partnership with other agencies in Greater Manchester by Julie Trice.

austrian cultural forum<sup>lon</sup>

The conference is preceded by an evening reception on Friday the 17th May, generously hosted by the Austrian Cultural Forum.

Location: 28 Rutland Gate, London, SW7 1PQ

(The Austrian Cultural Forum does not have a level access entrance)

Due to changing the venue of the conference to accommodate more delegates, tickets that also include attendance to the reception on the 17th of May at the Austrian Cultural Forum will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis.

In person at the Institute of Psychoanalysis, W9 2BT

Click here for more information